CRAB ORCHARD.

—Altho' we would like to, we cannot attend the republican convention at London the 30th, but here's our say on the candidates and the result.

Judge Finley is a old war hero, vindictive as a Turk, depending on his battle-blade to do the bloody work. The bigness of Pulaski bounds gives trouble confidence. Well phones himself on strength of freedom and study comes in sense. Vice Boering, with his entire hand and cash on mail matter, etc. Banks on his "block of iron," to put him forward in the race. Big Silas Adams, with a long record of a safe scope. And longer of course, for there was no need a mighty horse. The right is the part up to the people, etc.

There may be a few more, but John "Hon. Harry" gets there.

—Mr. A. H. Bastin has bought of Mr. Porter Robinson his cottage near the depot for $300.

—Mrs. W. T. Stephenson will represent the Crab Orchard, W. C. T. U., in the State convention at Richmond.

—There will be an oyster supper Saturday night at Hildreth's School house for the benefit of the Sunday-school at that place.

—Fodder-pullin's, bean-blinin's, ape-peelin's and hasses-sirrin's are some of the pastimes now regaling the home-loving, joyous country folks.

—I have just returned from the city with a full line of fall and winter millinery goods and will make a display of them Saturday and Monday, Oct. 1 and 2. With thanks for past liberal patronage I cordially invite the ladies to come and examine my new stock. Mrs. J. H. Stephens.

—The W. C. T. Us. were out in full force Saturday evening and paraded the streets with cornet, sackbut, posthorn and like, calling upon all in their way to sign the touch-not-touch-not-hand-not-pledge. It was amusing to see the lords of creation dodging these feminine crusaders, whose zeal for the good cause was not to be repulsed.

—The most embarrassing thing in the world for a young man when "in spark-ing" is to have the lamp suddenly go out in darkness, just before he's ready to depart. If this gal isn't so mighty, sweet one he's dead sure to sink away, wishing that he had never "toasted" himself into her presence. We never wished that—but—but the curse we assign above was all that kept us from it.

—The band boys are not often in "the swim," but when they are they are in over head and ears. Thursday night Misses Jennie and Hattie Calver invited them out to their country home and regaled them with a feast of dainties such as few weddings can boast of. Misses and little girls made up the rest of the time until 11 o'clock and the boys departed, leaving their fair hostesses with thanks for the evening's delights.

—Ben Moore and Charley Collins, two pupils of W. J. Edmiston's school, aged 14 and 14 respectively, fell out over a game of marbles at playtime Thursday and Collins plunged a knife into Moore somewhere about the small of the back, inflicting a dangerous if not a fatal wound. Collins was cut twice in the hand. Mr. Edmiston was at dinner and knew nothing of the fight until 8.30 his return to the school-house. Collins has not been arrested.

—W. A. Brooks was in town Sunday. Mr. Charley Douglas, of Danville, was up to see his sister, Mrs. H. B. Farris, Tuesday. Mrs. R. G. Pater, of Manchester, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. A. Reid, Jr., for the past two weeks, has returned home. Mr. John Anderson, Garrard county's brassy young superintendent of common schools, took in the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night. Mr. A. E. Flora, of Pineville, stopped over here Friday to see his best girl, Miss Malice Graves, of Missouri, at the Harris House. Mr. R. G. Reid, after a pleasant summer's sojourn with friends and relatives in this and adjoining counties, has returned to his home in Montana. Mrs. George Delord, who has been lying dangerously ill, is convalescing. Miss Beauregard Stunt has gone to Louisville to take a position in a millinery establishment.

—Unique and delightfully entertaining indeed was the "reading match" at College Hall Friday night, and the public show! Its appreciation by filling the house with a fair-minded, intelligent audience. The contest opened with 12 entries on the boards, eight young ladies and four young gentlemen, who represented in their selected pieces every species of literature, from the grave and serious down to the most comical and ludicrous. Prof. John Anderson, of Garrison, in the absence of Spire Chappell, who had been chosen, Dr. J. D. Pettus and Mr. R. Lee Davis acted as judges; and after balancing carefully the excellencies of each reader, awarded the palm of victory to Carpenter Stunt, whose selection, "The Guileless Witness," by its happy rendition, was made as funny as could be. Andrew Buchanan, with "Calling a Boy in the Morning," came second best; Miss Eva Steger, with "The Unbeliever," third, and Miss Alice Moore with "Home to Mother," fourth.

Ad the contestants acquitted themselves splendidly and Mr. W. H. Zeller in particular. So well received was his selection "The Director's Visit," that he was called upon to furnish more and responded with "George Washington's Little Hatchet," which completely capsized the house. But the witty reply which he got off on some fellow in the audience was the crowning glory of the evening. As he arose to repeat "George's Little Hatchet" somebody in the rear of the auditorium yelled out in slurry, despising tenor, "Twinkle, twinkle little star." With a clownish stare and sarcastic tone which would have melted a Dan Rice, he finished the stanza for the fellows: "How I wonder what you are," emphasizing the "you" so pointedly as to leave the impression on the audience that the fellow was a booby and an ass. Loud and prolonged laughter greeted this sally and everybody went away wearing a visible grin. The intermission of music by the C. D. string band was a decided feature of the entertainment. The match reflects considerable honor on Prof. Smith, and another illustration of his skillful training will be added when the "Juveniles" have their performance, which is promised some time next month.

—R. H. Brumbaugh bought this week of George W. Springer two year-old heifers at $6 and of others a bunch of steers calves at $10 per head. Messrs. Joe and Robert McAlister received Thursday of us partners in this locality 15 weanling calves, for which they paid prices ranging from $50 to $75 per head. Sam L. K. Wins returned from Clay county Wednesday with a fine drove of mountain cattle, numbering 30 odd head, which he will shortly put upon the market. The square is not only a judge of pretty women and rare old Bourbon, but one of the shrewdest of traders and if there's anything in cattle, he'll bring the men to round it. Michael Bowers a sturdy German citizen of Rockcastle, bought this week of the widow Albright her farm of notages for $250 and of Reuben Reynolds his farm of acres for $500. These lands lie contiguous to Bee Lick, and Mr. Bowers will shortly take up his abode among the people of that excellent neighborhood.

—We met recently Capt. Charles M. Warner, ex-conductor of the C. V. passenger train, with whom we were associated in the days when a railroad was a thing of wonder to the natives along the Upper Cumberland. The captain no longer wears the railroad brass buttons uniform, having given up his run to the L. & N. He is as much in love with the mountaineers as the burly-framed, big-heated mountaineers are with him, and all his chat was of the prosperous future which awaits this heaven-favored section. The C. V. train will never be run by a better pilot nor one more popular with the traveling public. The captain will make his headquarters at Louisville.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Born, to the wife of Mr. G. C. Lyon, a daughter.

—Billy Weatherford is here on a furlough. There is always a hearty greeting here for Billy.

—Miss Little, daughter of Geo. Little, Sr., has had a long struggle with typhoid fever, but bids fair to recover.

—Mr. J. W. Alcorn, wife and mother visited Hustonville last week. Jim is the West End's refuge when there's any uncertainty about ownership, legally or even justice.

—A partial solution of the strike by steam-haulers is found in the liberal spread of fresh metal on the steepest turnpike grades, making a half load even a severe tax on the jaded teams.

COOPER'S JUBILEE YEAR.

Twenty-Seventh Annual Tour of the Famous Forepaugh Show.

Judging from the newspaper reports that precede its coming, the Forepaugh Show under the proprietorship of Mr. James E. Cooper will have many sensational and unique attractions to unfold for the edification and delight of people hereabouts, at Lexington, Friday, Oct. 3, Danville, Saturday, Oct. 4. Adam Forepaugh, Jr.'s, 40-horse bareback act, the feats of his fighting, dancing and clown elephants and the amusing performances of his equine prodigies—"Blondin," the high-rope walker, and "Eclipse," the trapezeist—are among the pronounced hits of the acrobatic portion of the programme. The hippodrome races are said to possess all the stirring realism of the race track scenes at Saratoga and Long Branch. The show teams with novelties throughout, but probably the most striking innovation is the presentation of the original "Wild West" show, supplemented with the equestrian dramas of "Custer's Last Battle" and the "Mountain Meadow Massacre," in which 200 mounted combatants are introduced. The street parade of the combined Forepaugh and "Wild West" shows is pronounced the grandest processional display ever seen in any American city. Railroad company will sell tickets at reduced rates to and from all stations.

—Mr. James H. Taylor has taken the road in the interest of the Hustonville Roller Mill. Grigg's acknowledged superiority as a high-roller flour-maker, supplemented by Jim's irresistible logic sophistry, if necessary—will necessitate an early enlargement of the incomplete elevator, and the putting on of an efficient night-shift.

—The circumambient is resonant with the wail of the orphan mule colt. There is little comfort to farmers in cattle and hogs and melody in only the bleat of the lamb and bray of the hybrid. J. W. Allen sold to Combs & Allen 40 shopping cattle at $1, the latter firm sold to Dave Allen a pair of 4-year-old mares worth $100 and bought a good cotton mare of Mr. Allen for $50.

—Young Cooley, who was shot a week ago by me other, survives, with excellent prospect of recovery. It is certain that a bad or two penetrated the spinal column and others have been located in the tissues of the abdomen, opposite points of entry. A direct passage without penetrating intestines will soon be an impossibility. Hence is a puzzle the surgeon. Still alive, his mind clear from the moment of his wounds, aptitude and digestion good and a cheerful temperament promise a rapid recovery.

—The Little Red Hog, which has been of late years a pet diversion with the I. L. is, it seems, in a fair way to be relegated to the column of minor paragraphs by the Big Red Hog, in controversy between a prominent frequenter of Bowdow and a citizen of Stanford. It is a noteworthy coincidence that immediately after the settlement of a lawsuit which originated in the Middle Ages about a calf, that the disputed ownership of a hog promises a perpetuation of the wrangle on this side the ocean. The probability of another Landry vs. Landry was not a bright prospect to attorneys who suspect that the revision will entail litigation.

—The J. L. Pace farm of 60 acres was sold Saturday at execution's sale for $1,250 per acre. A. M. Frye is the purchaser. This addition to Mr. Frye's farm extends his land from the Liberty to the Middlebury pike. Shades of Cincinnati! Land within a mile and less of Hustonville selling for $30 an acre, and the belief general that half the farms in Lincoln are privately on the market. Strange that the farmers will not see their benefit in a high tariff and succeed better on a wind diet. We may not live to see the day of the "good time coming," but the Minchimins is approaching and as old Johnny Caldwell was wont to cheer his slaves, "Hurray, boys, you'll be free when you die!"

—That ruddy rockaway horse which it is thought superfluous to hitch, or even rig out with the best harness only awaits the opportunity to play smash generally, is as nearly axiomatic as that the sleepy but trusty 12-mile courts reckless familiarity for 20 years that he may catch you in a position that his kick assures a through ticket to kingdom come. Capt. Joe Hartman is the sniller now, in the demoralization of his old round buggy horse, through the carelessness of his otherwise crusty friend, Wm. Reid, Sr. Mr. Reid, as chapelon to a couple of young fishermen, had the loan of old Reid and a spring wagon for a trip to Green river and when elated by their phenomenal catch they embarked for home in unusual glee, old Reid had found his chance. Mr. R. is champion of the catch, had patronizingly entrusted the lines to Henry Cammitz whilst he occupied the rear seat with Will Hocken, Reid's first lunge split the rear passengers promiscuously over the tail-gate, and the seat crashed upon the sprawlers, adding Will momentarily and wounding Mr. Reid's real hand so severely that he will need a friend to do his jerking for him next time he goes fishing. Mr. C. heroically hung onto the steering apparatus and succeeded in piloting the old reprobate into a fence corner without further damage. It is an unimpeachably established that the inevitable jing was not loaded with bait and Reid's obstreperousness was not a result of his having monkied with the traps in the wagon; only an outburst of that pure cussedness which was of 20 years' latency.

—The outlook for line fall sport has not been better since the '60's. Bird-hunters can rejoice in a general report of the greatest plentiness of partridges and rabbits are thicker here than English sparrows, which nuisances have become annoying.

—The veteran merchant, J. B. Green, finds it necessary to enlarge his accommodations for his increasing business. Accommodation is the most appropriate adjective to use in any connection with Mr. Green, for one of his greatest pleasures is to accommodate friend or acquaintance, no matter what the inconvenience to him.

—Saturday morning's breeze from the north stilled up till 4 o'clock in the afternoon it felt like an embryonic blizzard, but Sunday morning arrived without frost, though wondrously like the Sunday of a year ago, which preceded the freeze of such severity as to ruin the squirrel crop early in October.

—Mr. James H. Taylor has taken the road in the interest of the Hustonville Roller Mill. Grigg's acknowledged superiority as a high-roller flour-maker, supplemented by Jim's irresistible logic sophistry, if necessary—will necessitate an early enlargement of the incomplete elevator, and the putting on of an efficient night-shift.

CANT PLAY BALL.

The Interior Journals Beat the Lancasters Clean Out of Sight.

THEIR FLATTERS CLIPPED.—When the INTERIOR JOURNALS went to Lancaster Wednesday and were defeated by that club, not only the base ball players of that nine, but most of the town people went wild over their success and a feeling of conceit evidently penetrated their very souls.

In fact they forgot that they were merely amateur players, and not very good ones at that, and when the manager of the I. J.'s casually remarked that they could not beat his team again, fully there was shovels at him and he was forced to either put up or shut up. Arrangements were made then and there for another game, which was to be for $100 a side, and Friday afternoon was set for the date. The understanding was that each club should play the same nine that they played in the game previous, but on account of the sickness of Critchlow and Burton and offered to let them be their own judges as to their playing, but the heretofore sporting men had so well that they could hardly be induced to bet on their own existence. It was finally agreed that the winning club should be entitled to the gate receipts and the game was then called and the Lancasters suffered the severest defeat that any poor base ball club ever heard of in these parts. The home team went to bat and made 3 runs, the I. J.'s then scored 6; the Lancasters made nothing in the 2d, but scored 1 in the 3d inning, and right here they died, for with all their hard playing they could not make another run. Our namesakes got three in the 2d, 3 in the 3d, 1 in the 4th, 6 in the 5th and 9 in the 6th. At this juncture of the game the boys who had crowded so loudly out Waterbury of Wednesday, grew sick at heart and threw up the sponge, the game standing 28 to 1. It is not relishing what the score would have been had not they given up the game, as our boys were literally pounding the life out of their "tears" pitcher, E. L. Coleman; the catcher was broken down and two of the batsmen were worn out. Ramsey and Embry were our battery and did good work, the former allowing only four base hits and the latter supporting him admirably. Will Wrenn nipped an exceedingly satisfactory game and the consequence was there was no grumbling.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,

JAMES B. McCREARY.

The actual standing of the candidates in the 11th so far as uncontested votes are concerned is as follows: Wilson heads the list with 50, Finley has 39, Nell 23, Boreing 14 and Adams 12. It will take 101 votes to nominate and the fun will arise as to who shall get the counties of Pulaski, Whitley, Harlan, Perry and Leslie, there being two delegations on each. If Wilson, Boreing and Nell combine they can name the presiding officers and this they will, no doubt, do. Chairman Colson will, in all probability, decide that the contested delegations shall take no part till the committee on credentials has passed on their claims. The convention, which will be called to order at noon to-day, is going to be the largest ever held in this part of the State and London will be taxed to the utmost to entertain the delegates. The citizens have, however, without regard to politics, opened their houses and asked that the delegates be assigned them.

The president of the board of commissioners announces that the buildings of the Kentucky Institution for the Education and Training of Feeble Minded Children, which were destroyed by fire on May 3, 1889, have been rebuilt and enlarged, so that there is now room for 100 more children. Any feeble minded child, a citizen of Kentucky, over 6 and under 18 years of age is entitled to the benefits of the institution. A letter addressed to Dr. John Q. A. Stewart, Superintendent, Frankfort, will secure the necessary papers and all information in reference to the admission of applicants, or Hon. W. H. Miller will secure the admission should any parent or guardian in this county wish to accept the benefits of the institution.

EDITOR LEWIS, of the Somerset Republican, is evidently not for Finley. Says he: "While Finley's boodle captured Wayne, Metcalf and Russell from Nell and Adams, those gentlemen still have a good fighting chance. The defeat of Finley is a foregone conclusion. The big split in his own county has sounded his political death knell." Lewis led a bolt in his own county against the ringsters, trying to run rough-shod over the country people, although he thought Tripple justly entitled to the county. As the phenologists would say, the bump of combativeness is about as largely developed on Bro. Lewis as in any man in Kentucky. He had rather be in a squall any time than have plain sailing.

The Barbourville News denies the story of the Critic about Barbourville being on the down grade and says it was prompted by malice on the part of Alexander Campbell Thompson, who was kicked out of the News office for incompetency, and of "Daniel E. O'Sullivan, who one time not long since, not longer than last spring, was about to be thrashed by Gov. James Givens over some attack made upon the governor by this second-class sheet aforesaid." It is a pretty light as it stands and our only desire is that the stockholders may come out on top.

ELIZABETHTOWN is about to demonstrate, what has been demonstrated without number, that three papers can not live in a one-paper town. The Welcome Tidings' editors have skipped out and the Harlan County Independent is so overpowered with law suits that its editor had better give up and quit before they get worse off. Meantime the old reliable News is sailing right along, proud of its prestige and furnishing an other example of the survival of the fittest.

THE McKinley tariff bill as reported by the conference committee, passed the House Saturday 152 to 81. A gentleman who has studied the bill and figured it out says it will add an annual tax of $1 to every man, woman and child in the country. The bill will go at once to the Senate, which will pass it as soon as possible, though it will not likely be able to do so by to-day, upon which the House has voted to finally adjourn.

The con. con. doesn't seem to want to get down to business. Col. Young from his committee reported a resolution providing that no new counties shall be created with less than 400 square miles and 10,000 inhabitants, and asked that the question be acted on at once, but the body was not ready to settle even this easy question. Meantime, the tide of resolutions continues to flow, with as yet no sign of an ebb.

THERE is even more difference in their statesmanship than in their marksmanship. Cleveland shot at a 235-pound deer and brought it down. Harrison killed a poor little Virginia pig when he shot at a duck. One made the best record for 50 years, the other has only disgraced the country and his own party.

It is said to be best never to count the chickens before they are hatched and ordinarily it is the safest plan to pursue, but it seems now so certain that the next National House of Representatives will be democratic that its probable officers are already being discussed. For speaker our excellent congressman, Gov. McCreary, is being prominently mentioned all over the country and wherever his peculiar fitness for the position is known he has ardent supporters. In our last issue we referred to complimentary notices of him in connection with the speakership in the Boston Post and Louisville Times and now a Washington paper comes with even a more flattering article and stronger endorsement of the proposed candidacy. There is no question that now, McCreary is one of the best equipped men in Congress for speaker or that, in the almost absolute certainty of a democratic House, he will have a formidable following for the position.

At a banquet given in honor of Mr. Watterson by the Massachusetts Reform Club at Boston, covers were laid for 300 and many prominent tariff reformers were present. Mr. Watterson responded to the toast "Sectionalism" and as usual had something to say and said it beautifully and eloquently. He appealed to the people of the North to disregard the sectional misrepresentations made by the politicians in the interest of a party and cease the perpetual war between kinsmen who have a common inheritance and the destiny of a great country in their keeping. The speaker touched, of course, on the tariff and in vigorous language gave earnest of the faith that is in him.

SOME of the newspaper men, who accepted the hospitality of the Middleboro Town Company, have not had a line about it in their papers. Common courtesy demands some recognition of the entertainment, but unfortunately the average country editor seems to labor under the delusion that the earth and the influence thereof are his without asking and without thanks.

AN inventory of Hon. Samuel J. Randall's estate shows that it is valued at less than $5,000 and consists of personal effects only. The inscription on his monument should read, "Here lies an honest man, who served his country well, and never made merchandise of his position or politics."

NEWS CONDENSED

Fowler Bros' packing-house, Chicago, burned; loss $500,000.

Henry H. Heymerson, an excellent citizen of Casey, is dead, aged 93.

A $6,000 monument is being placed over the grave of Judge Richard Reid at Mt. Sterling.

Twenty or more people were killed in a week on the Oregon Short Line near Pendleton.

Hiram Johnson, of the East End, sold to Garrard county parties a car load of fat cattle at 3 cents.

Congressman Stone has been nominated and Mr. Ellis in the First has made his calling and election sure.

James Hugh fell from his train near Lebanon Junction and was killed. He was an engineer, but was braking at the time.

The negro, Miller, seated last week by the republicans, was given a seat next to Congressman Dickerson, of Kentucky.

James Proffit stabbed to death a man named Kearns, near Middlesboro, and Chief of Police Hill thinks it was a pre-meditated murder. He was held without bail.

Attorney General Hardin decides that the license under which the lotteries claim to operate is void and advises Auditor Norman not to accept their tender of money.

The census bureau announces populations of California towns as follows: Los Angeles 50,394, increase 39,211; San Diego, 16,154, increase 13,516; Santa Barbara, 3,849, increase 2,389.

Two cadets at the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, settled a quarrel in regular prize fight style. On the 15th round young Taliaferro grew weak and was laid on a bed, where he died in a few minutes.

With the exception of Jackson, of West Virginia, and Venable of Virginia, the latter refusing to be a candidate, all the democrats retained their seats by the republicans have been renominated for Congress.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that both the L. & N. and E. T. V. & G., which have been negotiating for the purchase of the K. C., have decided that Mr. Huntington's price is too high and the deals are all off.

The postmaster of the House is to be investigated because he let contracts for carrying the mails for $5,000 a year and received in return from the contractors $150 a month. The rats are a very rotten set to be sure.

J. Poorman, of Laurel county, and J. Tissay, of Jackson county, were taken to Louisville by United States Deputy Marshal Page and lodged in jail. They are accused of making moonshine. They make 42 in jail there for the same kind of offense.

The trial of George W. Manpin for killing Ballard Bronston was concluded in the circuit court on Wednesday. The jury were out only long enough to take one ballot, which resulted in a unanimous verdict of justifiable homicide.—Richmond Register.

—A wreck on the B. & O. near Zanesville, O., killed eight and wounded many others.

Levy & Bro.'s distillery warehouse, at Milton, and 1,500 barrels of whisky burned Sunday. The loss will be over $100,000.

President Broadlin, of the Cincinnati Board of Public Works, has been caught robbing the city and Gov. Campbell telegraphed him Saturday: "I believe you to be dishonest and I demand your resignation before noon Monday next."

—The small reduction on smoking and chewing tobacco tax, viz: from 8 to 6 cents a pound, does not go into effect until the end of next June. This is done for the purpose of keeping down the certain deficit that will be found in the revenues of the government.

—A judge in the staid old Quaker town of Philadelphia has just decided that the "Kreutzer Sonata" is not obscene, but that on the contrary it is calculated to improve the morals of mankind. But all the same, Wanamaker won't let it pass through the mails.

—Of all the cities in the country the one that shows the greatest per cent. of increase is Tacoma, W. T. Its growth has been over 5,000 per cent. This however is explained by the fact that ten years ago the place was only a small village of a few hundred inhabitants.

—The conferees of the Tariff Bill have fixed the duty on binding twine at 7-10 of a cent a pound. The duty at present is 21 cents. The Western republican senators who voted for free binding twine are kicking, but nearly all will swallow the medicine when the dose is presented.

—A unique canvass is now progressing in the Fort Scott, Kan., district, where Gen. John H. Biscoe and his son are opposing candidates for the legislature. Gen. Biscoe asks his friends to deal lightly with the boy; that he is young and immature, while the boy says that the times demand the blood and vigor of youth and old men should retire to the chimney corner.

—The president has appointed E. Bard Grubb, of New Jersey, to be Minister to Spain, and Congressman Conger, of Iowa, to be Minister to Brazil. Mr. Conger is at present Chairman of the House Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, and is also the author of the Conger Land Bill. Grubb gets his reward for running for governor in New Jersey.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

—Mr. Miller proposes six classes of municipal charters, with iron bound provisions. He would have nonmunicipalities of the first class limited to a tax of $150 on the $100 of taxable property.

—The committee on crimes and punishments reported adversely on the resolution looking to the prohibition of punishment by the lash for public offenses and the proposition that all exemptions under the law should take place within the prison walls.

—Judge Beckner says our divorce laws are as lax as Indiana's or those of Illinois and to put a stop to the indiscriminate decree he has offered a resolution that all trials for divorce shall be before a jury instead of the judges at present. Mr. Phelps, of Louisville, offered a resolution to make the Bible cause for divorce the only one to be considered.

—The Louisville labor organizations have presented petitions to the convention for clauses requiring compulsory education, a fixed minimum age at which children can be employed in factories and mines, a fixed number of hours constituting a legal day's work, the Australian ballot system, the establishment of a bureau of labor statistics; also a board of arbitration, with power to settle differences between employers and employees, providing for the payment of wages in lawful currency, and for the branding with a distinguishing mark all goods or wares made by convict labor.

—Preachers and politicos don't assimilate. Preachers never pacify politicos, but politicos invariably corrupt preachers. We never yet knew a preacher fit for any good purpose after he went to Congress. If Brother William is now a good and pious man, his friends should keep him away from Washington City. If they have any regard for his spiritual welfare they will vote against him.—Jessamine Journal.

PUBLIC SALE

Land and Personality.

Owing to continued bad health, which prevents me from attending to business, I will offer

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1890,

At my residence about one-fourth mile north of McKinnon, on the Hanging Fork, Lawrence, Kentucky, Ky. All land at public auction, Stock, Crop and Farming Utensils, consisting of:

Seven head of Horses, among them a 4 year-old gelding, very fast and one good family gelding horse; 3 Jersey Cows, all good milkers; 4 calves; 1 bull; 1 heifer; 1 bull and one-year-old work ox; 20 barrels of Corn in the crib; 1 Buggy and Harness; 1 new Buckboard and Harness; 1 Spring Wagon, Pole and Double Harness; a lot of Clover Hay in the barn and Household articles; Furniture, etc.

Also a farm of about 10 Acres of Land, on which there is a very large tract of land and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a good comfortable dwelling of 4 rooms, also dining room, summer and winter kitchen, smoke and hen houses, a large and well-arranged barn and all other necessary improvements.

yesterday that he had killed. It is something like the picture of a bittern, though differing in color. The cold northern blast must have blown it to our section.

WHEN the county court was adjourned
from the 1st to the 2d Monday, the court of claims was allowed to remain as before, so that body will convene here next Monday to pass on the accounts of those who have claims against the community.

The L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Louisville to day, tomorrow and Thursday at one fare on account of the Fall Celebration, good till the 5th. Hall fare rates will also be given on the 4th, 5th and 6th to the German Festival in Louisville.

The remains of Mrs. A. Livingston, who died last week in Kansas City,
were brought to her son, Ed. J. C. Liv-ingston's, and after an impressive funeral sermon Sunday by Rev. T. J. Criswell, of the Methodist church, of which she was a devoted member, were laid to rest
in the old family burying-ground.

This Roar, a pal of Will Embry, against whom there are three bench warrants for various offenses and a fine of $35 for disturbing religious worship, was arrested
by Deputy this Newland, Friday night, at Garland Adams' and lodged in jail. It was reported after Wood got shot that he had fled to Texas, but Otis
got shot to him and he will have to deter-
get his western trip for some time.

Tony in the eyes of Uncle Martin,
charged with the murder of Will Embry,
colored, at Richmond, brought in a verdict of acquittal, notwithstanding Judge Morton's peremptory instructions to find him guilty of either murder or manslaughter. The judge therefore ordered the grand jury to take cognizance of the matter and the county attorney produced affidavits to show that a number of the jury had expressed their opinion in the case, altho they afterwards swore otherwise.

Martin goes clear, but it seems that the jury is in for it, both for contempt and false swearing, the latter a penitentiary offense.

KILLED.—William Crawford, a Lebanon negro, who had been working on Capt. Gaer's train, was run over by freight train No. 31 near Hazel Patch and instantly killed. He had been sent by Capt. Geer to flag the train, but while sitting on the track had gone to sleep. It is quite a strange coincidence that three of his men have gone to sleep while flagging during the last week and it was merely a piece of luck that the other two did not get killed also. Jim Palmer, who was sent back with a flag, went to sleep and the engine was just feet from him when it came to a halt. A negro named Growder was then made flagman and also followed the example of the other two and would have been run over had it not been for Capt. Geer discovering him and arousing him with a kick
where it did the most good.

THE little boys on the hill indicted and handed us the following, which we publish as written. Their complaint is well grounded. Let the trustees see that the grounds are not used by the public for anything else than the ones intended.

DEAR MR. WALTON:—We the undersigners and pupils of Stanford Seminary,
through your paper would like to know
of the trustees of school if private persons have the right to pasture horses, hogs and cattle upon the grounds, which has become an unbearable nuisance to us
little fellows who slip and slide and fall
in something worse than mud.

Hale, Ben Wearen, Logan Hughes, Charlie White, Robert T. Bruce, John Cor-dier, William Embry, Lee Baney, Harris Wearen, Joe Will McAlister, Manley Ty-
ree, Hunt McAlister, Barnes Wearen, Ashby Warren, Jesse C. Ramsey, Thomas Shanks.

BEGINNING with the 1st of Oct., our accounts will be due at the end of each month. This rule will be strictly adhered to. M. F. Elkin & Co.

RENTED.—The house advertised by Mr.
Thomas Metcalf on Lancaster street has been rented to Mr. John L. Elkin, who akes possession at once.

Our stock of fall and winter goods is now complete. Come and see us. Severance & Son.

CALL and examine my $5, all-wool
chinchilla overcoat, men's, Joe S. Jones, opposite the Portman House.

The city council has employed V. B.
Watson to attend to and light the street
lamps, in addition to making him
night policeman.

In addition to his class of 22 here,
which he teaches every Tuesday and
and Friday nights, Prof. J. M. Silbold has large vocal music classes at Kingsville
and Turnersville.

Those wishing suits would do well to call and examine my stock now, as it is complete in every particular, and includes some of the finest goods ever handled in Stanford. H. C. Ropley.

We desire to inform the public that our meat store will always be supplied with all kinds of fresh meats and fresh fish in their season. Highest cash price paid for hams. M. F. Elkin & Co.

Bravo & Bowens' Minstrels gave a splendid performance Saturday night
to a good audience, that went away highly pleased with its many features. Lew Fatum is a whole show in himself and his stump speech fairly took the house
by storm.

THE Louisville Times says Engineer
Phil Soden pulled a delayed mail train on this division last week at the rate of 63 miles an hour. Phil is one of the best men at the throttle on the road. He has wonderful nerve and the best part about it is that he never tapers with interventions to stimulate or impel it.

FOR J. W. COVINS.—Deputy Sheriffs Rud and Hartig, of Bell county, brought to jail here yesterday for safe keeping,
Linton, who shot and killed Town Marshal George Coover, of Pineville, a few weeks ago. At his trial Coover was held without bail and the officers say it is a case of cold-blooded murder and that Bell county is as good to a hanging
as a cent is for a ginger cake.

The Boyle county juries seem to have been bent of whack this court, as more of them hung than usual. The panel in the case of Isaac Shelby, Jr., for the murder of Green Linginfeld, after being out two days was discharged, standing seven on for acquittal and five for two years.
There was a hung jury also in the case
of Green Lay, who murdered Poke Colter in Junction City. Bettie Doty, a negro woman, plead guilty to the charge of murdering her own infant and was given a life sentence.

News comes from Wyoming that Hon.
T. P. Hill, Jr., who ran for circuit clerk in the Buffalo district, was the only democrat saved in the general wreck that resulted from the election. His excellent conduct of the office under Territorial rule and general popularity carried him
through and elected him by a majority of about 75. The police will pay about $20,000 a year and Tom's friends here will be much gratified at his success. We also hear that Judge Sautley is fixing to turn his face homeward and in less than two weeks will bid a final adieu to the rotten borough, where women vote and are permitted to unsex themselves generally.

JONES HOWARD JAMES.—Detective T.
V. Imboden, who arrested Wils Jennings
in Missouri some time since, arrived yesterday with John Howard, a brother of the notorious Wils Howard, the Harlan hesperian, whom he had arrested at Henderson, Ark. Howard is charged with the murder of Bob Craig and others in Harlan and a reward of $500 had been offered by the governor for his delivery to the jailor here. He is about 19 years old and at the time the detective caught him he was enjoying a spelling bee. He made no resistance and was brought
most of the way without being handcuffed. Mr. Imboden is a splendid detective and a fearless man and rarely fails
to land his game.

A LINCOLN COUNTY MAN KILLED.—In
intelligence of the killing of J. T. Lasley at Bradford, Florida, reached us by telegraph Saturday. Mr. Lasley was a brother of Mr. L. M. Lasley, of this place, and lived in this country a number of years,
where many friends will regret to learn
of his tragic death. Shortly after Mr.
Lasley moved to Bradford he was elected mayor and during his term incurred
the hostility of several scamps who made a habit of getting drunk and taking the town. He put a stop to such doings by lodging some of them in jail, and one J.
T. Garner had it in for him ever since.
Friday night he succeeded in his long fisted determination of killing Mr.
Lasley. After the deed he fled to an upstairs room, from which he exchanged a score of shots with Stuart Carson, a friend of Mr. Lasley and a son of Judge Carson, of Crab Orchard. During this shooting H. D. Sapp, a by-stander, was instantly killed. Garner was arrested and it was with much difficulty that he was prevented from being lynched, as Mr. Lasley was very popular in his new home. The deceased married Miss Jean Dickinson, of Crab Orchard, who died in giving birth to twins, who are still living and make their home with their grandmother there. After going to Florida he married there and two children were the result of the union. Both died, however,
and were buried there and his remains were placed by their side.

By provisions of its charter, depositors are as fully protected as any depositors in National Banks, its shareholders being held individually liable to the extent of the amount of their stock they have not called in, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. It may act as executive, auditor, director, trustee, &c., as fully as an individual.

To those who are engaged in business to us while managing their own affairs, the plan of Stanford is the best. Under our management they will continue to transact their business with us, offering a guarantee for prompt attention to same for twenty years' experience in banking and its business interests as are consistent with our plan of banking.

Corn sold in the field in Mercer at $1.97 a barrel.

The Midway Clipper reports sales of 94 stock hogs at $3.

—S. Phillips sold to A. K. Denny 3 mare mule colts at $200.

—Dawley Stephenson bought of John Cash a pair of mare work mules for $3.25.

—J. H. Dunn sold to Robinson, of Garrard, 13 head fat 3 year-old cattle at $100.

—Keller Thomas, a horseman, bought G. Tinker's place of 40 acres near Paris $175 per acre.

—A. T. Nunnelley bought of H. S. Withers and others a car load of 200 and 300-pound hogs at $3 cts.

—J. S. Hawkins & Co., sold to Dr. C. F. Dale, of Woodford, 120 head of sheep at $3.75 per head.—Jessamine Journal.

—J. A. Harris & Son sold to Eugene Lee, 2 car-loads of 1,525 pound cattle at $10.10. J. M. Held sold some a couple of car-loads of same at same price.

—A census of the fruit trees in Los Angeles county, Cal., shows there are 10,365,305. Among the large individual farms is that owned by Mrs. Modjeska.

—James P. Tribble has sold to Parrish & Douglass 15 head of 2 year old cattle, delivery at $3. Dr. Anitz sold to Pony Headley, of Garrard, his fine gelding for $325.—Richmond Register.

—Nelson broke the world's stallion record at Runkaker, Ill., Saturday, lowering it from 2:12 to 2:11 1/2. The race was made on a kite-shaped track, said to be four seconds faster than the regular constricted track.

—Apples are remarkably scarce and are being retailed by the bushels at $1 per bushel. Irish potatoes are scarce, and there are but few in the hill and as small as hen eggs. They are retailing at 35 cents per peck from the market wagons.—Paris News.

—Green Morris paid $6,000 for Watterson's farm May, and Saturday the same house sold for less than a third of that sum. This shows how easy it is for even an experienced horseman to get fooled, and proves that luck is an important factor in true success.

—Edgar sold to Eugene Lee 2 car-loads of 1,500-pound cattle to be delivered Nov. 1st at 4:10 and a car load of 1,400-pounds, for Dec. 1 delivery at 4 cents. Mr. Reid has bought in the last week no less than 1,100 to 1,200-pound cattle at $3.50 to $4.

—Emory & Dunn sold on Thursday to L. W. Hudson 14 miles at $165. Robert Nave, of this county, has sold to L. W. Hudson 30 extra nice sugar mules at $115. L. W. Hudson bought of Henry Bros., of Fayette, a load of extra heavy city mules at $155 per head; also a load of good sugar mules at $165; of Beard & Carrthers, a load of sugar mules at $157. 50. Arch Fry sold to Bass & Kimbrough, of Missouri, one 16-months jack for $625. Also one 5-year-old for $550. Etta Latimer sold to same parties a 10-months-old jack for $200.—Danville Advocate.

—The Best Advertising Medium.

Our senior and junior aristo proud to keep this nice letter sent to the latter, all to themselves, so will divide it with the public, withholding only the names.

Mr. WALTON.—Please accept our grateful thanks for your prompt and most excellent denial of that foolish announcement.

In the future if any one doubts the advantage of the INTERIOR JOURNAL as an advertising medium refer him to me.

Letters of congratulation from five States, to say nothing of various counties in Kentucky have been received and in every instance the I. J. is mentioned as source of information. May its banner wave until its editor and his associate are "bloated millionaires" and the free and untrifled democratic minority is all consuming majority, is the sincere wish of Your Friend,

X.

May you be there to see that Reed & his Force bill are the first to be consumed.

KENTUCKY SCHOOLS.—Every county in the State has white rounout schools.

The county having the smallest number is Gallatin county, which has 22 (it is a small county, however), and the county having the greatest number of schools is Franklin—139. The other counties vary between these two extremes. There are only six in the State which have no colored common schools, not one of which has reported a sufficient number of colored children to warrant a separate school.
